UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

EDWARD A. BRINSKELE,
Plaintiff,
v.

No. C-13-MISC-80094 JSW (DMR)

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION
RE UNITED STATES'S REQUEST FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Defendant.

On October 24, 2013, the Clerk issued a writ of garnishment to Vir2us, Inc. ("Vir2us") for the purpose of garnishing property in which Plaintiff-Judgment Debtor Edward A. Brinskele has a substantial interest to satisfy a 2009 judgment. [Docket No. 13.] On April 15, 2014, the undersigned issued a Report and Recommendation recommending the court grant the United States's motion for a money judgment and order compelling answer as to Garnishee Vir2us and deny Brinskele's motion to vacate the writ of garnishment. [Docket No. 41.] In the Report and Recommendation, the court ordered the United States to submit briefing regarding its request for attorneys' fees against Vir2us pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 3205(c)(6). The United States timely filed the requested briefing. [Docket Nos. 46, 46-1 (Fee Brief).] No opposition was filed. For the following reasons, the court recommends that the United States be awarded $4,340 in attorneys' fees against Vir2us.

I. Discussion

1 Section 3205 of the Federal Debt Collection Procedures Act sets forth procedures for writs of 2 garnishment. See 28 U.S.C. § 3205. It provides that a garnishee must answer a writ of garnishment
3 within ten days of service of the writ. 28 U.S.C. § 3205(c)(2)(E). In the event that a garnishee “fails 4 to answer [a] writ of garnishment or to withhold property in accordance with [a] writ,” the United 5 States may move for an order requiring the garnishee to appear before the court “to answer the writ 6 and to so withhold property before the appearance date.” 28 U.S.C. § 3205(c)(6). If the United 7 States files a motion for an order requiring the garnishee to appear due to the garnishee’s failure to 8 timely answer the writ, “[t]he court may award a reasonable attorney’s fee to the United States and 9 against the garnishee.” 28 U.S.C. § 3205(c)(6).

10 Here, the government served Vir2us with the writ on October 28, 2013. (Yang-Green Decl., 11 Nov. 22, 2013, ¶ 3.) After Vir2us failed to answer the writ, the United States moved for an 12 Order to Show Cause directed to Vir2us, seeking an order requiring Vir2us to appear before the 13 court to answer the writ pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 3205(c)(6). [Docket No. 16.] The court granted
14 the motion and set a hearing on January 23, 2014 for Vir2us to appear and show cause why it failed
15 to comply with the writ of garnishment and why the court should not enter judgment against Vir2us.
16 [Docket No. 19.] Vir2us failed to appear through counsel, and instead, Brinskele appeared. Given 17 his representations about Vir2us’s efforts to retain counsel in connection with this matter, the court 18 did not hold the order to show cause hearing. The court ordered Vir2us to file a notice of 19 appearance by counsel by January 27, 2014 and directed the parties to meet and confer regarding 20 service of the writ and the timing of Vir2us’s answer thereto. [Docket No. 22 (Minute Order).]
21 Vir2us did not file a notice of appearance by the deadline, and on January 28, 2014, Brinskele filed a 22 motion to vacate the writ. [Docket No. 23.] On February 12, 2014, the court filed a motion for 23 money judgment and order compelling answer against Vir2us. [Docket No. 25.] The court set both 24 motions for hearing on April 10, 2014 and ordered Vir2us to appear at the hearing to show cause for 25 its failure to comply with the writ of garnishment.

26 The court held a hearing on April 10, 2014 at which Vir2us appeared through counsel. On 27 April 15, 2014, the undersigned issued a Report and Recommendation finding that Vir2us had failed 28 to show good cause for its failure to comply with the writ, and recommending the court grant the

1 United States's motion for a money judgment and order compelling answer and deny Brinskele's
2 motion to vacate the writ of garnishment. [See Docket No. 41.]

3 Given Vir2us's failure to show good cause for failing to comply with the writ, the court finds 4 that the United States should be awarded reasonable attorneys' fees for the work associated with its 5 attempts to secure Vir2us's answer to and compliance with the writ. To determine a reasonable fee
6 award, courts employ the lodestar method, which multiplies the number of hours reasonably
7 expended on the matter by a reasonable hourly rate. Hensley v. Eckerhart, 461 U.S. 424, 433
8 (1983); Jordan v. Multnomah Cnty., 815 F.2d 1258, 1262 (9th Cir. 1987). The reasonable hourly
9 rate depends on "the prevailing market rates in the relevant community." Blum v. Stenson, 465 U.S.
10 886, 896 (1984). When assessing the rate, the court also may consider the novelty and complexity 11 of the issues; the special skill and experience of counsel; the quality of representation; and the 12 results obtained. See Cabrales v. Cnty. of L.A., 864 F.2d 1454, 1464 (9th Cir. 1988). Although the 13 court presumes that the lodestar represents a reasonable fee, Jordan, 815 F.2d at 1262, the court may 14 adjust the award if other factors make it unreasonable. Kerr v. Screen Guild Extras, Inc., 526 F.2d
15 67, 70 (9th Cir. 1975). Therefore, the court must analyze the reasonableness of an attorneys' fees
16 award by looking at (1) the reasonableness of the attorneys' hourly rates and (2) the reasonableness
17 of the hours worked. See Craigslist, Inc. v. Naturemarket, Inc., 694 F. Supp. 2d 1039, 1066 (N.D.
18 Cal. 2010).

19 The United States requests $4,340 in attorney's fees for 31 hours of work at an hourly rate of 20 $140. (Fee Brief 2.) It submitted a declaration by Allie Yang-Green, counsel with primary 21 responsibility over this case, in which she describes the work she performed from November 15, 22 2013 to April 1, 2014 on matters related to the government's motion for an order to show cause and 23 motion for money judgment and order compelling answer. (Yang-Green Decl., May 5, 2014.)
24 Based upon the court's familiarity with this litigation and counsel's work, the court is able to assess 25 the reasonableness of the hours claimed by counsel without the need to inspect contemporaneous
26 time records. See N.D. Cal. Civ. L.R. 54-5(b)(2). The court finds the hours worked are reasonable.
27 As to counsel's requested hourly fee of $140, counsel states that she has been practicing law since 28 2006. (Yang-Green Decl., May 5, 2014, ¶ 6.) This rate is well below market rate for an attorney

1 with similar experience in this district. See Craigslist, 694 F. Supp. 2d at 1068 (applying adjusted
2 2008-2009 Laffey matrix for reasonable attorney rates to reflect San Francisco regional factors,
3 concluding that reasonable hourly rate for an attorney with 4-7 years of experience is $300 per hour
4 and with 8-10 years of experience is $367 per hour). However, the court declines to recommend use
5 of an hourly rate that is higher than the rate sought by counsel. Therefore, the court recommends 6 that the United States be awarded $4,340 in attorney's fees against Vir2us.

7 II. Conclusion

8 For the foregoing reasons, the court recommends that the United States's request for $4,340
9 in attorneys' fees from Garnishee Vir2us be granted.

10 Any party may file objections to this report and recommendation with the District Judge 11 within 14 days of being served with a copy. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(a); N.D.
12 Civ. L.R. 72-2. Failure to file timely objections "may waive the right to appeal the District Court's
